Crossing a bridge....

With my internship finished and graduation under my belt, I find myself at a bridge. Sometimes in life the bridges we cross are strong and sturdy, stretching out over calm waters, while others seem to be old and rickety hanging on by a string over a raging river. But we can find comfort, strength, and peace in both situations because of who is ALWAYS with us!

Isaiah 43:1-2

"But now, thus says the Lord, your Creator, O Jacob,
And He who formed you, O Israel,

"Do not fear, for I have redeemed you;
I have called you by name; you are Mine!
"When you pass through the waters, I will be with you;
And through the rivers, they will not overflow you.
When you walk through the fire, you will not be scorched,
Nor will the flame burn you"

I have crossed both kinds of bridges sense I have been serving the Lord these past 7 years. And I have to say, I prefer the strong ones over the old ones any day, as I'm sure most of us do. With this new bridge in front of me I'm reminded of some of the bridges I have crossed before. At the time, I felt like I was crossing a raging river on a bridge that was going to fall at any minute only to look back and see that the Lord was calming the waters the whole time and I had nothing to fear because the Lord was with me.

As I set out on this next part of my journey, stepping out in faith onto the bridge that the Lord has placed in front of me, there are many things that will be happening....

The week after I graduated from Frontier School of the Bible, I sat down with the Board of Tentmakers Bible Mission to discuss my calling back to Kenya, Africa and my becoming a full-time missionary with TBM. I was so blessed to be able to spend time with them.

I was surrounded by many years of experience in ministry and I am humbled that the Lord saw fit to put them in authority over me. I am so excited and in AWE of what the Lord has done and is doing for me as I prepare to return to Kenya.

As we discussed my ministry in Kenya, I couldn't help but think back on the bridges the Lord has taken me over. All of them leading me to this point in my life and I know without a doubt HE was with me the whole time. As I stepped out in faith, HE was the one keeping me safe and giving me the strength to move forward, and now it is without a doubt in my mind that the Lord is doing it again.

With the Board voting in favor of me becoming a full-time missionary with TBM... Praise the Lord... I am on my way back to Kenya, Africa to disciple the women, teach them how to study the Bible for themselves, and then to teach them how to teach, so that they can teach others.

By the end of May, I will be back in Nebraska to spend some time in the area sharing with people what the Lord is doing in Kenya. For the rest of the summer into fall I have plans to return to Wyoming along with South Dakota, Utah, Ohio and possibly Montana to share my ministry with others. I'm excited to let people know about what the Lord is doing, and I'm excited to travel and see some of our great country.

As I think about all that the Lord has done for me over the past 4 years at FSB, I'm amazed. I'm amazed because He used me....little old me. I never thought or imagined the things I would do and the places I would go because one day in February 2010 I trusted Christ. That one decision didn't just change my eternity.... it changed my life here on earth.

I know that as I move forward, there are going to be challenges and fears, but I know Who goes before me and Who is beside me. I know that the Lord has put in place the right people to lead me and direct me on this journey and I have faith that His plan is better than my own. I have faith that He will do it.....I just need to be willing to go...to be willing to lay everything at His feet and trust in Him.

Thank you for all your love, encouragement and support for me and for what the Lord is doing in and through me. I can't explain how important you are to me and how grateful and blessed I am because of you. You are a very important part of my ministry, I couldn't do what the Lord is asking me to do if you were not here with me. Thank you!

Because of His Grace
