The enemy is prowling trying to devour me...
but my God is greater and much much bigger!!

I have purchased my tickets to Kenya!!!

September 18th is the big day.....I'm so excited.

As I prepare for these next steps the enemy is prowling, trying to prevent me. One of the biggest things right now seems to be the confusion and frustration of the new visa/permit regulations in Kenya. I knew there would be some changes and challenges but the possibility of not being able to enter Kenya never crossed my mind. But like I said and like so many of you know...our God is greater and the process of getting into Kenya is no challenge to Him. Through many conversions and emails everything will work out by me getting my visa before I leave in Sept. Praise the Lord!

Isaiah 43:1-2

"But now, thus says the Lord, your Creator, O Jacob,
And He who formed you, O Israel,

"Do not fear, for I have redeemed you;

I have called you by name; you are Mine! When you pass through the waters, I will be with you;

And through the rivers, they will not overflow you.

When you walk through the fire, you will not be scorched, Nor will the flame burn you".

With 37 days left, I'm trying to get my head around how I'm going to pack up my life and move to Kenya, in 3 or 4 bags. I have no idea if that is even possible, but I'm going to try. I'm also trying to stomach the reality that very soon I will have to say good-bye to family and friends who have been such supporters and encouragers to me, that includes you as well. But I don't really like good-bye so how about we say, " see you later ".

As the next 37 days fly by please know I'm thinking of you and the wonderful blessing you have been to me. I know without a doubt because of the blessing you are to me you will also be blessed. Thank you from the bottom of my heart!

God is good...

He has been answering so many prayers and you have been a part of it all!

God called me to serve Him in Kenya and I'm overjoyed that we are going on this journey together. You are such an important and vital part of this ministry the Lord is calling us to. Now is the time the rubber meets the road so to speak. We all have been praying for this moment and its finally here. I can feel your prayers and they are such a blessing, I would not be able to get through this time without them...keep them coming!!

1 Peter 5:8

"Be alert and of sober mind. Your enemy the devil prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour".

He is on the prowl... but like I said, our God is greater...let stay alert and sober minded in prayer. Please keep praying for all that has to be done before I leave. It seems like every day there is something that gets added to the list of thing to do.

I have some additional financial changes due to getting my visa before I leave. I'm still in need of just a few more supporters to join my team for the last bit of my monthly support and I'm now at 20% of my budget for a vehicle.

I know the Lord will add those He wants in this ministry, whether that's by new people giving or by using the team He already has in place. So, will you please keep praying for the Lords will in all things concerning this ministry He is calling me and you to. Blessings to you all!

Because of His Grace
