

Happy New Year!

I think we can all agree that 2020 had many of us feeling unprepared, to say the least. A passage in 2 Corinthians 12 was a great comfort during some of the more “hairy” times. Verses 9 and 10 say “But he said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness.” Therefore I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may rest upon me. 10 For the sake of Christ, then, I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and calamities. For when I am weak, then I am strong.’

If nothing else, last year gave us all the opportunity to experience the power of Christ in an even bigger way.

We want to begin 2021 by sharing our most recent praises and prayer requests with you.

Praises:

Annie's dad has fully recovered from Covid

We were able to spend time with many extended family members during the holidays

We continue to have visitors at church

Our family's continued health

Our ministry partners (Matt & Emmerie) returned from a sabbatical in December

Prayer Requests:

We hope to buy a house

Wisdom in parenting - we are navigating some new territory with a few of our children's feelings towards their biological family.

Wisdom as we continue to navigate covid related things for the church.

God's continued protection on our marriage.

Thank you for your continued prayer and support! May the power of Christ rest on you.

Blessings,

Bradley, Annie, Chirysh, Michael, Lydia, & Ruby

Below are some pictures of what has taken place over the last few months.

Had the privilege of speaking and giving a report at our sending church back in NJ.

While back in NJ I got to spend some time with some dear friends.

While back in NJ we got to attend Brandon and Taylor's wedding.

We would appreciate your prayers for our dear friend, Nahomi (far right) as she continues Chemotherapy over the next 5 months.

We spent time decorating the church for the Christmas season. Bradley was able to do a Christmas series entitled: "Ornaments of Truth" from the book of I John.

All of those who helped decorate or church.

One of our Christmas projects was donating coats and blankets for a ministry called:
"Goodness Gracious"

Our annual Christmas eve tradition of going up to Mount Charleston to eat at the lodge.

We praise God that our church continues to grow even in the midst of Covid.

Please continue to pray for us as we pursue His will.

We love you guys and are grateful for all of your prayers and financial support. May the Lord bless you and your family in 2021, and may the Lord's favor be upon us in 2021.

Psalms 37:23 - The Lord directs the steps of the godly. He delights in every detail of their lives.

With Love,
