

KISUMU

I have some exciting news....

While I have been seeking to start ministry in Nairobi, the Lord has very clearly closed the door there and is moving me to Kisumu.

When I decided to stay in Nairobi two years ago the Lord used that decision and the things that came along with it to teach me, grow me and strengthen my relationship with Him. The doors that were open for me then are no longer open and the Lord is moving me forward.

As God leads me down this path, He has opened and closed many doors, some I understood and some I didn't. He wastes nothing and is always in control. We only need to trust Him, have faith that He knows better and keep moving forward.

After much prayer and counsel the decision to move to Kisumu and continue ministry there is clear.

Seeking to trust the Lord and stepping out in faith is always the best choice.

My desire is to keep Tentmakers Bible Mission Kenya going, and I feel that should continue in the place it was started.

Also, continuing to teach the women of Kisumu by being in their everyday lives, is best served by living near to them. So as I move forward and take this step of faith, I ask you to seek the Lord with me, as I strive to follow His leading as I start to settle in Kisumu. This road has been a long one with many twists and turns, but I know without a doubt I could not have made it here without your faithfulness to the Lord and to the ministry He has for me in Kenya. You have been my biggest encouragement, my loudest fans, my faithful prayer warriors and the truest of brothers and sisters in Christ. I thank God for you and the part you play in sharing the gospel and teaching and discipling in Kenya.

Asante sana rafiki yangu....
