ONE HEART AT A TIME

Mitch's Newsletter

What's Happening Now

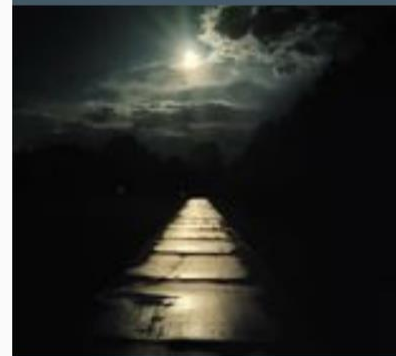

I am currently living in LaGrange, Wyoming. I live at Tentmakers Bible Mission. I am using the office to meet with students and encourage their education as they grow closer to God. I also get opportunities to minister to unsaved friends that live in LaGrange. I am also raising support and getting things squared away with TBM. I am still looking for a house in Brigham City, Utah. Jordan Ghere (one of the church planting team members) is coming to visit today. We will work through church planting details and catch up.

The Church Planting Team

What's Old

I am officially commissioned by Crossroads Community Church in Pines Bluffs, WY to church plant in Utah. I now have a TBM website. After that I will need to raise support. Camp has also ended, so I have moved to LaGrange for two weeks. I have put all my stuff in a storage unit. I have had an opportunity to butcher a steer with my friend and be a light to him. I had to give away my dog, and that was very hard on me.

What's New

I will be moving to Brigham City, Utah September 8th, after the team goes to a family camp to meet up with other people reaching Utah for Christ. Connor, Jordan, and I will be house sitting for a month. We'll have the opportunity of meeting many of the rest of the TBM missionaries in Utah on the 13th, for a one day conference..

A Little About Jordan

Jordan grew up in Michigan. He was my roommate freshman year at Bible College. He has a real heart for youth and preaching the Word. He likes to cook and talk with people.

A Little About Connor

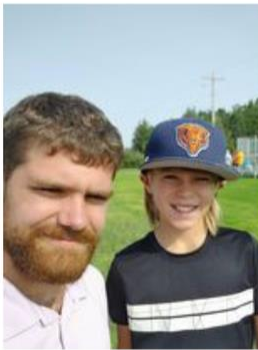

Connor grew up in eastern Colorado. He was in my class at Bible College. He has a heart for teaching apologetics. He enjoys board games and books.

What God's Been Teaching Me

God has been teaching me lots. Life has been very hard for me moving 2x in 3 weeks. I also had to give away my dog. God has been teaching me to trust Him with everything. My lack of confidence, my organization, my dog, my relationships, and my singleness. God has been helping me through my reading of Hebrews this past month. I am very excited and nervous to move to Utah.

Cayden (on the left) and I got to play football and be a father figure, too. Please pray for him to know Jesus. Moving all our stuff (on the right). Thankfully God provided one of our teachers to move all our stuff to Utah for us.

Prayer

- For housing in Brigham City, Utah.
- That I would adjust to the move. It will be hard for me to leave long relationships. (God has used me in this area for 5 years).
- That I would continually stay in the Word
- For "The Team" to be used of God in the different church plants
- For financial support as I raise support for Church planting.
