ROMANS 10: 14-15

"But how will people call on Him in whom they have not believed? And how will they believe in Him of whom they have not heard? And how will they hear without a preacher (messenger)? And how will they preach unless they are commissioned and sent (for that purpose)? Just as it is written and forever remains written,

"How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news of good things!"

Uganda...

My time in Uganda was a blessing. It was such an encouragement to come alongside the ministry there and share Jesus with the Ugandan people. Jesus is doing great things! What a privilege to be a part of it.

Elections were finalized here in Kenya on September 5th and our new president was sworn in. It was not the man the people of Kisumu had hoped for, but everyone remained calm and peace was held. We are praising the Lord for that.

Thank you for standing with me in prayer for Kenya, our prayers were heard and answered.

Support

Thank you for your faithfulness...

I have received some much needed one-time gifts, which helps monthly where my support is lacking. The Lord is always faithful in providing for my needs. I see Him confirming my obedience and service to Him and I'm humbled. I'm still in need of some much needed monthly support. As you can imagine fuel prices have gone up again in the last few weeks, and my rent will go up again in January.

I only need 9 more partners!!

3 people @ $100

2 people @ $50

4 people @ $25

For those already supporting this ministry would you prayerfully consider increasing your monthly support. ?

Thank you for your faithfulness in giving to the ministry in Kenya.

Post elections...

Life by the lake is moving pole, pole (slowly, slowly) again. The shops and streets are busy with people who have returned back to Kisumu and it feels more like the Kisumu I know and love.

Ministry is picking back up and daily life is returning back to regular scheduled programming. The Lord is always at work, but it's nice to have a schedule to keep my mind focused on things.

I had the opportunity to go home to home with the church where I have been serving.

It's always a joy to meet people out and about and share Jesus with them. People want to know and hear the truth...pray for the ones who professed Jesus, that it was genuine and that they will come and be discipled.

New Friends

As I share the love of Jesus and His gospel with those around me, I have had many great conversations. Topics have ranged from sin and how it separates us from God to speaking in tongues and healings. Our God is amazing, and brings these conversations at just the right time.

It not only motivates me to seek His Word to learn more but it also penetrates my heart to share Jesus even more with people. This world is so full of darkness and He is the ONLY LIGHT that shatters it. He is our ONLY HOPE in this life, and there are still so many who don't know Him.

Please pray for more conversations about Jesus.

Christina Trujillo is here in Kenya for a few months as an intern. She will be here learning the culture and serving alongside the ministry.

She loves kids and kids love her. I'm excited to see how the Lord grows her while she is here.

I thank the Lord for you and the encouragement and support you are to the work here in Kenya. Your faithfulness spurs me on and helps lift me up when times get hard.
Thank you from the bottom of my heart.
Because of His grace.....Love LeAnn <><
