The Lord is faithful...

"Let us seize and hold tightly the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who promised is reliable and trustworthy and faithful [to His word]"

Hebrew 10:32 AMP

Teaching the mamas at our end-of-the-year celebration.

The young mamas in our community come to the church for spiritual and health education. Can you imagine being 11-14 years old and having a baby? They have a lot of needs and we seek to introduce them to Jesus and help where we can.

The girls are still out of school until Jan 23rd. That's a long time to sit idle. It is during these times that they can get in trouble and possibly end up pregnant again.

PRAY: they will remember the things they have learned about the love of God and make better decisions for their lives.

Sanitary pads, soap, toothbrush and toothpaste, petroleum jelly for baby, diapers, rice and beans.

Shopping

The widows came to the church to collect the bags. I was able to share a clear gospel message after a time of worship and praising the Lord.

As I learn more and more about Kenya and the community that the Lord has me serving, I'm humbled and amazed. He is always faithful to provide what we need, sometimes even when we don't know we need it.

PRAY: Kenyans are suffering more and more. Food prices are so high and work is hard to find. I seek to show them Jesus and to know His love for them. It's a hard relationship for them to understand. To know of a love that saves you from eternal separation is one thing...it's another thing to understand how to follow after Jesus every day.

Christina (my intern) and I had a fundraiser for Christmas food bags. We had a goal of $300 for 30 bags. We raised over $1000 and were able to bless 60 widows in the community. The Lord is faithful in providing. With all the extra we were able to add more food to the bag and bless more families .

I was able to spend Christmas with Steve and Deb in Uganda. It was such a blessing to be with them and Christina. I have made some really good friends over there and I look forward to visiting again.

"Therefore encourage and comfort one another and build up one another, just as you are doing."

1 Thessalonians 5:11

At the end of December I went to a missionary conference with some friends. It was a great time of fellowship, meeting other people serving the Lord in East Africa, worshiping together and getting into God's Word. I have not been to a conference in years and I'm so glad I had the opportunity to go.

While I was there, I celebrated my birthday. I'm so thankful to the Lord for all the lessons and blessings this past year. I'm excited to see what adventures He and I will take this next year

Happy Birthday

My regular Bible study classes and discipleship are going on well. We took a break over the holiday. I'm excited to get started again. The women have shown a real desire to not just know the truth, but to learn how to interpret it correctly for themselves. That is a huge encouragement to me. I love seeing them learn and understand it for themselves. It's such an amazing thing.

Thank you so much for being on this journey with me. I'm blown away by your faithfulness to the Lord and the work He is doing in Kenya. I'm thankful for your words of encouragement and prayers...keep them coming. Thank you

Because of His Grace

Love, LeAnn <><

I'm planning to be back in the US this summer for some much needed fundraising. I would love to see as many people as possible...but also realize that might not be possible. If you would like me to come and share the ministry at your church please let me know. We can gather in homes and outside of a Sunday service. The sooner you let me know the better. Looking forward to seeing everyone.
