Dear Family and Friends,

Our time in the States is drawing to a close. We have travelled quite a bit recently. We had the opportunity to visit a former pastor and his wife that are in Salt Lake now. We also were able to see a TBM missionary-pastor in Colorado along with a couple of the TBM board members that live in that area. After that we visited some of the Anderson family that lives in Denver. Last week we had a trip to LaGrange, WY where Angela had the opportunity to meet several more family members, this time on the Tremain side. We also were able to speak in the Frontier School of the Bible chapel time, help with AWANA, share in a couple of classes, and visit with the students a little before leaving SE Wyoming. We have had the opportunity to share in 2 churches in Worland along with churches in Dayton, Powell, Sheridan, and this coming Sunday at a church in between Cody and Powell.

That brings us to our return to Peru plans. We will be flying out of Cody to Dallas on April 8th and our flight from Dallas to Lima, Peru is April 11th. We hope to be at home in Arequipa the 12th or 13th. Please be praying for us and our return to Peru. It seems as though the situation is a little more stable than in December and January but that can change overnight.

I will try and put together a little video update about our time in the States once we're settled back in Peru. Meanwhile, here are some photos. Thanks for your prayers and support.

Finish Strong,
Jeff and Angela Anderson
