

Hello blessed Prayer Warriors!

We made it back home after it becoming a two-day trip. We are getting back into ministry right away as Delwin taught the men last evening, Friday, and Techy will teach the teens this afternoon, Saturday.

We were so blessed throughout this quick trip to the U.S., gaining a new daughter and a new son. Both weddings: Lucas & Taylor on May 27, in CO and Sarah & Jonathan on June 10th in NE were precious, and it was great seeing family and friends. Thanks for your prayers!!

We had a wedding here in Peru just before leaving Tarapoto, too.

Now we'll have a wedding reception here for Jonathan & Sarah on June 30th for the ones here who were unable to make it to the wedding in Nebraska.

There's going to be a men's retreat just before the reception and following that, a group from Plano Bible Chapel in Texas will arrive on a mission trip. Marcos and Allyson, who are attending Plano Bible Chapel and are doing an internship with them before being full-time TBM Missionaries in Peru will be here with us for both the men's retreat and the mission trip.

Please see a few photos from the family below. We are so blessed!!

Thanks so much for your faithful financial and prayer support!!

Have a great day and God bless,
