

Tuombe... lets pray

Prayer Update....

There have been many discussions/negotiations with movers, landladies, buyers and many more. Moving in East Africa is not easy, but the Lord has gone before us and is opening doors and answering our prayers. Thank you for praying!

-Packing/Moving: Everything that I wanted to sell has been sold PRAISE the Lord!!! I received fair prices on everything. The money will help go towards moving costs. We have been in negotiations with the movers. The company we found has helped missionary families in the past and seems to have a good reputation. PRAISE the Lord for leading us to a trustworthy company who will help get my things across the border.

As we negotiated the total price for moving costs and taxes at the border, we prayed to not go over $600.00 for everything. PRAISE the Lord they accepted our offer of $535.

-Classes: Meeting with the women has been bitter sweet. They understand why I'm moving, but are sad to see me go. We have been talking about how they are going to be moving forward and we have had some hard conversations about willingness and desire to serve the Lord, the calling some have to teach and the understanding that they have the tools they need to step out in faith to lead.

Proverbs 3:5-6

"Trust in the Lord with all your heart

And do not lean on your own understanding.

In all your ways
acknowledge Him,
And He will make your paths straight".

It has always been my desire to build up the women who are already in the position of leadership, because I never know how long the Lord will have me in that place. I understand their fear, I had it too, but I know they can do it. PRAY for the women to continue to meet together and to have a desire to know God's Word, and to continue to put into practice the things they have been learning.

-Transition: I'm not going to lie to you and say my focus on Jesus has been perfect....it's been hard. My thoughts are on Kenya and Uganda. And the overwhelmingness of the move and all the changes seems to be gaining momentum. BUT GOD...is so faithful to remind me to slow down, take one step

James 1:5-8

"But if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all generously and without reproach, and it will be given to him. But he must ask in faith without any doubting, for the one who doubts is like the surf of the sea, driven and tossed by the wind. For that man ought not to expect that he will receive anything from the Lord, being a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways."

at a time and to remember Who is doing all the heavy lifting. Our God is amazing, isn't He? PRAY for my heart to hold fast to Jesus, to lean into Him as the momentum continues to speed up and to know His timing and plans are perfect.

Finances: We all know how fast ordinary life expenses add up...even more so when you'er moving. We have done our best to keep costs down and we are trusting the Lord to provide all that is needed, both big and small.

Thank you so much for your faithfulness in supporting what the Lord is doing in Kenya. I look forward to this new adventure that He is taking us on, as we shift to Uganda and expand the ministry there. Because of His Grace Love LeAnn <><

If the Lord has put it on your heart to help us with moving expenses, setting up the house, first time deposits, travel costs, paperwork/visa costs....day to day costs please PRAY and ask the Lord for guidance in how to help.
