

Support Raising Trip

In mid-April we hit the road for a four-week road trip to visit churches around the Midwest.

We were able to visit a lot of friends and family along the way!

We spent a week with Marcos' aunt Laronda and uncle Carter. Judah adored them.

We were able to present our ministry to Berean Bible Church in Scottsbluff. This was extra special because they also support Marcos' parents!

We were invited to present at Fort Collins Bible Church. This church was such a blessing to us. Pastor Brad has a wonderful ministry and strives to lead his congregation into biblical literacy.

We were so encouraged after our visit.

We went to school with Ben Coleman (an elder at the church) and his wife Holley was Allyson's roommate senior year. There's something so special about visiting old friends and seeing your kids play together!

I mean come on, look at those little faces.

Our mission agency, Tentmakers Bible Mission, had their 40th anniversary and we were able to go to the banquet. We were able to catch up with some of our teachers from Frontier School of the Bible. We also had the wonderful surprise of seeing the Roderick's who are missionaries in Africa! Deb was Allyson's mentor while she was a student at FSB.

After that we made our way up to South Dakota to visit Trace and Katie Larson. Unfortunately, we didn't get a picture presenting at the church, but we did get this picture of Judah riding a goat. We were amazed by the Larson's hospitality. Despite having a newborn baby and a busy schedule, they made us feel right at home. Nothing quite like midwestern hospitality!

On our way home we were able to stay with Allyson's freshman/junior year roommate, Amy, and meet her two kiddos!

June VBS in Texas

Allyson grew up going to VBS at Cedar Creek Bible Church, her grandparents' home church. They are now one of our partner churches and invited us to be one of the missionaries of the week for their VBS program this year!

VBS at this church was the first time I (Allyson) ever heard what a missionary was. Getting to share about our ministry with these kids and telling them how they can be a part of missions right now is a memory I will cherish forever.

Here Marcos is teaching the kids about the different cultures in Perú. We brought some clothes, food, candy and drinks from different parts of the country for the kids to try!

July Trip

This month we are in Colorado!

We were able to spend a week in Frisco, CO to rest and spend time together as a family. It was such a sweet week of making memories with our boys.

We had the opportunity to present at Rocky Mountain Bible Church in Frisco, CO. Everyone was so encouraging and welcoming to us.

We have a few more visits scheduled this month that we are looking forward to. It has been a busy few months for us, but we are so thankful for God's grace to us even through the chaos of traveling with small children.

Current support

Since our first trip in April/May, we have reached 100% of our one-time outgoing costs! Praise the Lord! From now on, any one-time gifts we receive will go towards saving for a vehicle.

As far as our monthly support is concerned, we are currently sitting at 57% with a goal of being at 80% before we move.

We would love to be in Peru by mid-October. Our Missions Agency is holding a South American mission conference in Lima, Peru at the end of October. We would love to be able to attend and meet other missionaries that are working in similar areas and see what is working and what's not. Please pray with us that we will be able to be there by then!

Please Pray

- For the hearts of those we will be sharing the Gospel with
 - For our family to adjust quickly when we move
 - For quick language acquisition for Allyson and Judah
 - For us to be able to move to Peru in October
