AS OF RECENT

I've been reading through the old testament recently. It's been so cool! I started in Exodus and read all the way to 1 Samuel and then decided that I should read Genesis too so I've been in Genesis. God's word never ceases to amaze me in how it all ties together in the big story of redemption. Something that has been so applicable to me these last few weeks is that God is a God who sees us and comforts us in our need. I'm learning that he hears my cries before I cry them. He sees my affliction before it comes upon me. And He cares! He sends comfort before I even know that I need it. He sends reminders before I remember that I need them. What a mighty God we serve!

This month has been a rollercoaster. It has had lots of ups and downs, physically, spiritually... BUT GOD. When my life changes everyday he stays the same, yesterday, today, and tomorrow He's still the same. WOW!

At the beginning of this month I got to use my artsy side and decorate for an event we volunteered for called the "Harvest Moon Harrah." I ended up sculpting a huge pumpkin for decoration. It was so much fun!

I got the opportunity to go on a leadership team retreat with my team this month. It was an amazing time for me because I felt like I got to know everyone a lot more on this trip and we talked though so many different church plant things that I just feel like I learned so much! Me and Karisa actually went a little early and went hiking in Zion national park! Whoot whoot!

Wednesday September 10th is the day that Charlie Kirk was assassinated in Orem Ut. It is approximately 25min from where we live in Spanish Fork. This tragic event has affected the community and our church in many ways. A lot of people are still trying to process it here, It feels very personal since it happened so close to us. I have to keep remembering that Christ has already overcome the world even if it doesn't feel like it sometimes. This has however sparked some good! I heard many reports of people starting to attend churches because of the immorality they now see in the world.

Also during this leadership retreat I became very sick... we went to Ceder Breaks National Monument at 10,350ft elevation and I got incredibly sick from that Thursday until the next Tuesday, I have have never been so sick. God carried me the entire way. He put people in my life to care for me, pray for me, take me to urgent care, and drive me places I needed to go. It was one of those times in life that God reminded me that I'm not my own, I am in the hands of He who created me. My health, finances, time, resources.... They are all God's. I am just a slave to him and I am completely dead to the world. This was a really good reminder for me!

We started our Grove Groups(adult bible study)and also had our Bigger or Better (Youth group) event. I've had the privilege of helping lead worship for some of these events as well as help with worship music at church on Sundays every other week!

I got to have a really encouraging conversation with Kim this month as well! She is so gracious to me in letting me stay with her in her home. She has let me know that I can stay with her for several more months or until I need to find other housing. So I can save up for a car while I stay with her for awhile!

HOW TO BE INVOLVED

Prayer is so powerful! Please pray for our ministry here! It is so amazing what God does through prayer.

And I am still looking for people wanting to get involved financially. The goal is to have support for at least half of the monthly budget of $2000. Please pray about possibly supporting this ministry! The more support I have the more I can be involved, the less hours I'll have to work. Please contact me if you have any questions, Or if you would like to get involved in supporting me, or if you just want to chat I'd love to share more about what God is doing!
