LEARNING AND YEARNING

I finished the book of Isaiah this week! I was so impacted throughout this book by who God is! In Isa. 43:11 "I, I am the LORD, and besides me there is no savior." In Isa. 48:12b "I am He; I am the first, and I am the last." In Isa. 55:8 "My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are my ways your ways, declares the Lord." And God's servant; Isa. 52:13 "Behold, my servant shall act wisely; he shall be high and lifted up, and shall be exalted." 53:5 "But he(God's servant) was pierced for our transgressions; he was crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with his wounds we are healed." No one compares to our great God. No one else but Jesus Christ could pay the debt we owed! O praise the Lord that he is good, that he sees us, hears us, knows us and still chooses to love, provide for, and give us grace !

SINCE LAST TIME

We had a really lovely Easter service, lunch and baptism! It was such a sweet day and we had so many people from our church at the baptism a lot of which were unbelievers. It is always such an encouragement to hear what God has done in someone's life. Our church continues to grow and be a place of pure joy!

Learning about church planting has been so impactful to me over the last 8 months, I have learned that I am selfish, I have learned that I am impatient. I have learned that planting a church takes time, LOTS of prayer and selfless people who are willing to pour their lives into ministry. Our leadership team has been and continues to be a constant source of encouragement, joy, and fellowship. They challenge me to grow everyday and have taught me the meaning of steadfastness.

Me and Kim decorated Easter eggs together! Kim has been an answer to so many of my prayers, she has become one of my best friends and I love spending time with her, she is selfless and is teaching me (whether she knows it or not) how to be a woman who is dedicated to God's word, his ministry, and how to care for his people. Love you Kim ;)

I got the opportunity to fly home and go to my cousin's wedding this past month, it was such a quick visit but so so sweet! I spend time with family and friends, and spent some time building sand castles with my nephew Oliver of course.

God continues to answer our bold prayers! A couple young adults have started to attend Aspen Grove which is so exciting to see!

I also recently finished my last assignment for my Internship with Frontier School of the Bible! YAY!

UP AND COMING

I will make a visit to WY for graduation on May 8th to walk with my bachelors this year from FSB. With that being said I am still in my church planting apprenticeship with Aspen Grove through Tent Makers Bible Mission and plan to stay here in Utah until at least spring of 2027 or until God takes me somewhere else.

I am trying to have plans but also keep my hands open to what the Lord has in store which can be hard at times. The trip to Israel has been cancelled/postponed till next year but this gives me the opportunity to help with and go on our women's retreat in May! I'm really excited to be a part of this trip! Pray that it would be a sweet time of fellowship and growth for the ladies at our church.

PRAYERS AND THANKS

My heart is in a constant battle of being overjoyed by what God has done and laid low by the darkness that I'm surrounded with. I appreciate your prayers and supplications so much but I plead with you to continue to pray for us! Please pray for Kenzie (my co-worker), pray that God would soften her heart to the truth and that she would come to know Jesus as her savior, and that he would heal her body and soul. Please continue or pray for the families in our church who are wrestling with one spouse being saved and the other not. Pray for God's wisdom and grace in all of our upcoming events this summer like VBS and skills camp along with the missions teams that are coming to help to run them. Also, please keep praying for a building for Aspen Grove. Thank you so much for your love and compassion!
